The Law Offices of Black & McGhee is a full service elder law and estate planning firm dedicated to working with our clients and their families to provide security and peace of mind in planning for their future.

The services we provide include:

- Estate planning, including planning for the management of one's estate during life and its disposition on death through the use of trusts, wills, powers of attorney and other planning documents
- Preservation/transfer of assets seeking to avoid spousal impoverishment when one spouse enters a nursing home
- Medi-Cal and VA benefits planning
- Estate tax planning
- Disability planning, including use of durable powers of attorney for financial management, living trusts, Health Care Directives, and other means of delegating management and decision-making to another in case of incompetency or incapacity
- Conservatorships and guardianships
- Probate and administration of estates
- Administration and management of trusts

The Law Offices of Black & McGhee appreciates the complex financial and social decisions our clients face. Our attorneys bring extensive training and experience in the areas of estate and disability planning. This knowledge provides our clients with a complete plan for caring for themselves or their loved ones, asset preservation and the carrying out of our client's wishes. In addition, our Elder Law attorneys are sensitive to the special needs of elderly clients and their families and take into account and empathize with the physical and mental difficulties that often accompany the aging process.
